August 30, 2018

CIRCULAR ECONOMY CLUB SHORTLISTED AS FINALIST FOR GLOBAL GAME CHANGERS 2018 AWARD

The Circular Economy Club (CEC) is a nominee in the “Collaboration for Change” category as part of the Global Game Changers 2018 event, slated for Sept. 12 in Glasgow.

LONDON—The Circular Economy Club \(CEC\) has been shortlisted as a finalist for a Global Game Changers 2018 award. The award recognizes innovations, practices and initiatives advancing the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Newsquest Media and Innovators Magazine jointly organized the first Global Game Changers gathering in 2017, and the success of the inaugural event inspired a return in 2018. The CEC is a candidate in the “Collaboration for Change” category.

“We are honored to be nominated amongst such an impressive collection of organizations,” said CEC founder Anna Tarf. “I believe this nomination is a reflection of the work we’ve done to connect changemakers, spur collaborations and maximize local impacts at a global scale.”
